

Questions for the Fellow Craft Degree.

1. The reason for the form and content of the Fellow Craft Degree was:
 - A. The developer wished to impress others with his general knowledge.
 - B. To bring light to the candidate by actually educating him.
 - C. To condense as many elements of education into the Fellowcraft lecture as possible.
 - D. This knowledge was necessary for Operative Fellowcraft.

2. What does the term "Fellowcraft" mean or symbolize in Masonry? [Choose 2 answers]
 - A. One who holds membership in a craft.
 - B. A man who has earned respect from his peers.
 - C. An organization of skilled workers.
 - D. Tradesman who went to a formal vocational school.

3. Which of the following statements is true?
 - A. The first degree makes its principle appeal to the conscience.
 - B. The second degree makes its principle appeal to the intellect.
 - C. The second degree emphasizes the philosophy of Masonry.
 - D. The Fellowcraft is a man in the prime of life.
 - E. All of the above.

4. What is the symbolism of the Cable-Tow having been wrapped twice instead of once as in the Entered Apprentice degree?
 - A. Since this was the second degree, it was also two or twice.
 - B. The Cable-Tow was very long and it was necessary to take up some of the extra length.
 - C. It was to show that I was under a double tie to the fraternity.
 - D. It represented the dual meaning for the letter G.
 - E. It represented the dual meanings for each group in the stairs in the staircase.

5. The Middle Chamber is:
 - A. Representation of King Solomon's Temple.
 - B. The symbol of wisdom.
 - C. Where the Entered Apprentice received instructions.
 - D. Only occupied by the Worshipful Master.
 - E. None of the above.

6. What is the significance of the wages of a Fellowcraft?
 - A. Your labor is worthy of reward.
 - B. Those responsible for doing the work should be paid.
 - C. You are entitled to a just reward, both physically and spiritually.
 - D. Corn of nourishment, Wine of refreshment, and Oil of joy.
 - E. That you have passed the requirements and are ready to be raised to the degree of a Master Mason.

7. The Fraternity recognizes equality as a what?

- A. A natural fact.
 - B. A learned – social skill.
 - C. A skill taught by parents and schools.
 - D. A right of all people.
8. Why are the stairs in the Fellowcraft Degree winding instead of straight?
- A. They are symbolic of human life, where the goal is not in sight.
 - B. It ties in with the circumambulation that was in the first part of the degree.
 - C. Symbolic of always going from darkness to places of more light.
9. If the Entered Apprentice represents a youth standing at the portals of life, then the Fellowcraft represents:
- A. A man of years, already on the farther slope of the hill with the setting sun in his eyes.
 - B. An adult who has attained experience and wisdom.
 - C. A man in the prime of life.
10. The most impressive portion of the Fellowcraft Degree is the Middle Chamber or staircase Lecture. The first three steps are symbolic of:
- A. The three principle officers of the Lodge.
 - B. The three degrees of Masonry.
 - C. The three qualifications of a fellow craft; experience, education, and wisdom.
 - D. All of the above.
11. The passage to the Middle Chamber represents man's journey from what?
- A. Fellow Craft to Master Mason.
 - B. Ignorance to enlightenment.
 - C. Total darkness to full light.
 - D. Both A & B.
12. The letter "G" is prominently displayed over the Master's chair in every Lodge. What does it stand for?
- A. Geometry, the noblest of all sciences.
 - B. Grand Lodge of Minnesota.
 - C. God, before whom all should bow.
 - D. Gavel, the emblem of authority of the Master.
 - E. Both A and C.
13. What are the Working Tools of a Fellowcraft?
- A. The Plumb, which admonishes us to walk uprightly before God and man.
 - B. The Square to square our actions.
 - C. The Level to remind us that we are traveling upon the level of time.
 - D. All of the above.
14. Who are the principle officers of the Lodge?
- A. Master, Senior Warden, and Senior Deacon.
 - B. Master, Secretary, and Treasurer.

- C. Master, Senior Warden, and Junior Warden.
- D. Master, Secretary, and President of the Trustees.

15. Why was the password of the second, or Fellowcraft Degree selected?

- A. It was the name of the man who gave the degree its form.
- B. The enemies of a country could not frame to pronounce it correctly, thus identifying themselves as enemies.
- C. Because it is one of the important working tools of a Fellowcraft Mason.
- D. It is the name of one of the Orders of Architecture.

16. The Brother who is stationed outside the Lodge Room to check if those entering are paid up members is called the:

- A. Marshal.
- B. Steward.
- C. Deacon.
- D. Tyler.

17. Which of the following officers is not an elected, but rather an appointed by the Master to serve for one year?

- A. Senior Warden.
- B. Junior Warden.
- C. Secretary.
- D. Treasurer.
- E. Senior Deacon.

18. The two times you must stand and salute the Master are when you rise to address him, and:

- A. When he rises and leaves his station.
- B. When you enter or retire from the Lodge while it is open.
- C. When the Lodge calls from refreshment to labor.
- D. None of the above.

19. To be elected the Master of the Lodge, the Brother must first:

- A. Be approved by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota.
- B. Be elected by a majority ballot.
- C. Have served as a warden of the Lodge.